Two of her boats were on fire before they could be reached, but the third was launched and put off with the two mates and two men and a boy. There were nineteen persons aboard, fourteen of whom, including the captain, perished in the flames. The propellor Enterprise, of the same line, was about fifteen miles astern of the Perseverance and she picked up the boat containing the persons above named, and arrived here with them this afternoon. The Enterprise remained near the burning steamer until daylight, at which time the wreck was still afloat. The captain's son, who was first mate, is among the saved. The best of shelter and stabling has been provided for stock, and the arrangements for feed and watering are complete. Machinery has been placed in Power Hall, and every machine and implement will be exhibted to the best advantage. We earnestly hope that all interested inventors, mechanics, artisans, agriculturists and all working men will send to the Fair specimens of their handiwork in the mechanic arts, machinery and implements, stock, productions of the soil, that all may sustain the efforts made to promote an agricultural and mechanical display which shall be a credit to Pittsburgh and Allegheny county.

HORSES AND CATTLE.

The display of horses and cattle promise to be very fine, a large number of entries having been made. The imported cattle of James McKelvy of Wilkinsburg, and Wm. B. McCrea of Wilkins township, attract much attention among stock breeders, especially the Alderney stock of the latter gentleman. A number of other imported cattle and cross breeds are entered, but had not arrived at the time we left the grounds, but which may be seen this morning. A number of Spanish Merino and Cottswold Sheep are already in the pens, but of these we have as yet no variety. W. B. Herriott, of South Fayette township, has entered quite a number of fine wooled sheep, which can be seen this morning, and of which a further description will be given. The Swine and Poultry department is not yet opened, but from the entries we should judge that a fair exhibition will be made.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

Near Power Hall a large display of agricultural implements of all kinds will be made, and at a late hour last evening the entries in this department were quite large. Pittsburgh will be largely represented in this class, and a number of entries have been made from other sections of the State, all of which will be a valuable display for the inspection of the agriculturist.

VEGETABLE DISPLAY.

The display of vegetables as yet is quite small. Some mammoth pumpkins and squashes are noticeable in this department, but the number of entries as yet is very small

THE POMOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

The varieties of fruits, as far as entered, are very good, but they are small in number. The grape exhibition promises to be very fine. The unfavorable season, however, will, it is to be feared, render this display somewhat meagre.

FLOWERS AND FRUITS.

The floral displays of Pittsburgh and Allegheny county have always been excellent. Our nurserymen have been noted for their taste and fine arrangement of flowers and shrubbery, and we feel warranted in saying that the exhibition of flowers and shrubbery will be a feature worth noticing in this exhibition. Messrs. Murdoch and Bennett will make a fine display this year, well worthy of their already established reputation as florists.

FOOD, CONDIMENTS, &C.

But few entries had been made up to last evening, which were well worthy of a special notice, but we will await a further display, as the number of exhibitors will be quite large as per the names upon the list.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The department of Fine Arts, located in Artists' Hall, is yet very meagre, being mostly confined to photographs. We noticed that a part of the Floral department will occupy this hall. We noticed a very fine model of the Great Republic, made by John Stedman of Rochester, by a penknife, which is really an artist's production, and which attracts a great deal of attention. It was in the Domestic department last evening, but will be placed to-day in Artists' Hall for exhibition. As we write, a large number of entries for all departments are being made, and should to-day be pleasant a large attendance is anticipated.

Special trains will be run on the Allegheny Valley, Connellsville, and Pennsylvania Railroads for the accommodation of visitors during the Fair, which with the street cars will afford easy access to the grounds, and should the weather be favorable a large attendance may be anticipated.

DINING HALL.

Persons visiting the Fair can be accommodated with an excellent meal at Messrs. Stewart, Campbell and Gregg's, the well known caterers of this city, who have the only dining rooms on the grounds, and who will furnish meals at all hours. We cheerfully recommend them to the patronage of the public.

—The Valley Falls Mills of Rhode Island have shut down for repairs, which it is estimated will cost upwards of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

—On the 23d ult., the Pottery Works at Peoria, Ill., were burned, involving a loss of $125,000. They were the most extensive works of the kind in the State.

—Twenty different sorts of manufacture are carried on in Seymour, Conn. Rolled copper, edge tools, rubber goods, car springs and buttons are the principal ones.

—Much of the stock of the Union Manufacturing Company at Woolcotville, Conn., is owned by the principal workmen. The mill manufactures fine doeskins exclusively.

—Comb factories, it is said have been, like most other business, unprosperous during the past year, but, like other branches of trade, expect a revival after Grant's election.

—One firm in Wisconsin makes 52,000 ladies' reticules yearly, besides 5,000 children's willow carriages yearly. For these latter the firm owns ninety acres of willow plantation.

—The largest manufactory of shoe pegs in this country is said to be at Burlington, Vermont, where one factory is accustomed to transform, every day, four cords of wood into four hundred bushels of shoe pegs.

—One manufacturer of false teeth in Philadelphia turns out about two million false teeth every year. More than one-half of the whole amount of this necessary article used in this country is made in Philadelphia.

—One firm in Boston is so busy building locomotives that a $200,000 order had to be refused last week. Orders for thirteen locomotives, ten of which were for the Central Pacific Railroad, were taken the same week.

—The New York Central Iron Works, at Geneva, N. Y., employ 25 hands on engine and mill work and plows; they have been established fourteen years and are said to have the largest collection of patterns in Western New York.

—H. Booth & Sons, of Milwaukee, are in the hide and leather business, and have a factory 125 feet by 60 feet, with a 20-horse power engine. These works are kept running at full capacity making aprons for Grant and Tanner Clubs.

—The Atlantic Works, at Boston, devote themselves especially to building iron vessels, and employ three hundred and fifty hands. They are now building one 1,100 ton iron steamer besides a four hundred ton iron brig for carrying molasses in bulk.

—The principal boot and shoe factory in Elmira, N. Y., employs nearly 200 hands, and turns out about 130 cases of goods per week, consisting principally of stout work for the country trade. The business of this establishment amounts to about $300,000 annually.

—The Detroit Safe Company manufactures $150,000 worth of iron safes yearly, nnd employs 100 hands. They are at present doubling their capacity. They have on hand a $30,000 job, in furnishing the vaults and safes for the new banking house in Cleveland, Ohio.

—A fine new machine shop has been opened at Manchester, New Hampshire. It is supplied with about $12,000 worth of machinery, occupies two buildings, one 114 by 40 feet and another 36 by 40; employs 25 hands and a 75 horse power engine, and is used for general machine work.

—The Mechanics Exhibition opened at Concord, New Hampshire, yesterday, and will stay open for three weeks. Four large buildings are occupied and ample steam power provided. Appearances seem to promise that this, the first exhibition of this sort in that state, will be a successful and creditable one.

—There are extensive works for the manufacture of agricultural implements at Garrettsville, Ohio. The main building is of stone, 75 by 36 feet, and two stories, surrounded by several smaller structures, and a large addition is now being erected. These works will turn out pitchforks, hoes, &c., by the thousand dozen next year.

—The great lumber interest of Michigan is worthily represented by D. A. Ross & Co., who handle at their yards and mills in Detroit over 6,000,000 feet of lumber. They employ 40 hands constantly, and manufacture large quantities of sash, doors, blinds, &c. They have a steam mill at Flint which cuts over 6,000,000 feet of pine lumber per year.

—On the 25th of September the reservoir at Healde's village, Mass., gave way and the water rushed down the mill lined valley, destroying and sweeping away one planing mill, two saw mills, two wheelwright's shops, a coloring and bleaching mill, a dam and Loring's mills. Conant's flouring mill was damaged, though not destroyed. The loss consequent to this disaster is estimated at $250,000.

—A flouring mill is being added to the already mammoth establishment of Field & Affleck, malsters, at Geneva, N. Y. It will have four run of stone and will turn out 200 barrels of flour per day. The building occupied by the firm is 160 by 80 feet, and contains storage capacity for 100,000 bushels, and an elevator which can handle 1,000 bushels per hour. They have recently put into their works a 100 horse power steam engine, with a balance wheel weighing 24,000 pounds.

—The largest match factory in the United States is said to be at Detroit. The main building is 222 by 56 feet, and divided into 11 fire-proof compartments; there is also another building divided into three fire-proof compartments, which is 150 by 36 feet; and a third which is 134 by 22 feet. The capacity of this factory, which can give employment to 500 hands, is positively enormous. If run at full capacity the works would consume 1,200,000 feet of seasoned lumber for splints, 960,000 feet for shipping cases, 460 tons straw boards, 151 tons paper, 160 tons brimstone, 25 tons glue, and 22,300 pounds phosphorus.

—Chicago claims to have the largest upper leather tannery in America. The grounds of her pretensions may be seen in what follows. The Union Hide and Leather Company's Works, on the north side of the Chicago river, occupy nearly five acres, including docks. Their main building is 241 by 80 feet and 3 stories, and on this is a two-storied superstructure 75 by 35 feet. The building is constructed without angles, inside, so that every workman is under the eye of the foreman. A steam elevator in the centre of the building is used for hoisting purposes. The working force of the establishment is 100 hands, and its producing capacity 1,000 hides per week, including wax, buff and upper leather, and a small quantity of harness leather. About one-half of this product is sold in Chicago, and one-half in Boston.

EPHEMERIS.

—Missouri claims to have 500,000 acres of copper lands.

—Lancaster county has produced a six pound sweet potato.

—The people of the South live in constant fear, also in atmosphere.

—The election question in England now is, can a peer of the realm vote?

—A government oyster fishery is about to be established on the coast of Ireland.

—An anti-tobacco club has been formed in New York. Aunty Tobacco would be a better name for it.

—Wm. McKibben, well known here as proprietor of the Merchants Hotel in Philadelphia, died on Saturday.

—Canadian ladies do not take to the Grecian bend, but they have adopted another deformity called the Montreal wriggle.

—Already the Union Pacific Railroad is despatching snow plows to several points on the line, to fight the storms in the mountains.

—The Jewish Messenger says that many Israelites have abandoned the idea of returning to Palestine, being quite satisfied with America.

—The brigands of Southern Italy are teaching rich men the worth of life. They have now one prisoner whose existence they value at $34,000.

—The government won't sell arms at Springfield just now, for fear some of the Spanish or South American belligerents may want to buy them.

—There is a steam engine in New York that runs 125 presses, prints 50 different newspapers, makes hoop skirts, binds books and runs a mile of shafting.

—A restaurant keeper in Richmond, Va., refused to deliver up the corpse of a man who had fallen dead in his house, because the deceased was indebted to him.

—An individual in Buffalo publishes a card to the effect that the wages received by his young son for marching in political processions supplies the family with butter.

—Monday was really the day of the great unwashed. It was wash-day, but the washerwomen were needed in the procession, which may probably account for the dirty linen paraded.

—The spelling on Democratic banners was outrageous on Monday. If Mr. Burtt is really the friend of that party he would do well to resign at once his political aspirations and exercise his vocation as a teacher, on his constituents.

—The nigger was the text of the majority of transparencies on Monday. One man made a—nigger-egous ass of himself by having on his banner a picture of a negro labelled "crude," and one of Frank Blair labelled "refined," What can one expect of a party which takes Blair as its model of refinement?

—We hope every doubtful voter saw the bacchanalian revels and outrages of the Democrats in the streets on Monday night. Any one who saw them and can still think of voting the same ticket as those animals, upheld in their peculiar way that night, may as well do so, for we wouldn't have them in our party at any price.

—The Democratic enthusiasm was so great in Allegheny, Monday evening, that a whole company of red shirted paraders attempted to knock down some ladies on Federal street, in order to get at a wounded soldier, who was behind them, huzzahing for Grant. The appearance of two sound and sober gentlemen, who came to the aid of the ladies, abated their enthusiasm, however, and the company of red shirts moved off with valorous discretion.

Rivers and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, October 6.—River falling fast, with 6½ feet in canal. Weather clear and pleasant.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly with three and a half feet in the channel. The weather continues cloudy and smoky, with every appearance at times of more rain.

There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report, and the J. N. McCullough, for Cincinnati, and the Julia No. 2, for Zanesville, constitute the departures.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving at noon.

The hull for Capt. A. H. Shaw's new boat arrived yesterday, and she will be pushed forward to an early completion.

The new steamer Economist, Captain J H. Porter, is filling up steadily, and will take her departure to-morrow for Arkansas river. She will receive freight for all intermediate points.

It was reported at Cincinnati on Monday that Capt. W. B. Donaldson, of the Great Republic, was to be released on bail; amount of bail required $100,000.

The Kate Kate Putnam arrived at St. Louis on Sunday evening with a heavy freight list.

—The Armenia, Armadillo, G.A. Thompson and Ida Rees No. 2 left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday.

—The Era No. 10, built at Madison for the Red river trade, arrived at Louisville Saturday, but unfinished.

—Wm. Goslee and James Henderson, are the pilots on the Armenia, and Joseph Whitten and Wm. Oakes, are on the Ida Rees.

—The Muskingum river packets have been compelled to suspend their trips on account of the water being let out of Beverly Canal.

—The contest between the opposition lines, at St. Louis, continues; fare to Quincy $1,50, and correspondingly low to all other points. All the boats have good trips, but are losing money.

—The Geo. D. Palmer, of the Northwestern Union Packet Line, with a barge in tow, struck the bridge at Quincy, Illinois, Saturday, and sunk. The boat and barge were heavily laden, and will probably prove a total loss.

—The Cincinnati Commercial says: Capt. T. W. Rea's new side-wheel steamer, building at Pittsburg for the mountain trade, will have the Waverly's machinery. She will not draw more than twenty inches of water, and carry 600 tuns.

—The following were the boats at the Cincinnati wharf on Sunday: Albion, Belle Vernon, Leonidas, Shamrock, Nightingale, Kate Robinson, Westmoreland, Minnie, Clifton, Darling, Golden Era, Robert Moore, St. James, Fleetwood and Liberty No. 4.

—We clip the following from the Gazette: The officers of the Leonidas say that the report started by the Kate Putnam, in regard to the low rates prevailing at Pittsburgh, is incorrect. The Leonidas has no freight aboard at less than twenty cents, and a large proportion at thirty.

—We clip the following from the St. Louis Democrat of Monday: The Andrew Ackley, a small sternwheeler, left here Thursday for Grand river, a tributary of the Missouri, with a cargo of government goods. On Friday, when near Point, she caught fire in the hold, and was scuttled to save her. She was subsequently raised and sailed back for repairs. Capt. Brady is her commander, and Tom Boyle clerk.

—The Robert Moore was so badly aground at the Cincinnati wharf, Saturday morning, that three towboats were necessary to pull her off. The Sam. Parker parted a three inch hawser in two places. There were about 75 tuns of drift under the boat, which had accumulated under her hull while she lay at Fulton, and clung to her keel when she was towed to the wharf. This mishap cost the Nashville Packet Company at least $150.

—We clip the from the Louisville Courier of Sunday: The following towboats, with tows of coal, arrived yesterday: Star, Alps, Victor, Wilson, Hawk, Panther and Hercules. The Star and Alps were dropping their tows through the canal, and and were to leave for New Orleans last night. The tows of the others will remain here for the present. The Arrow, with a tow of coal, was due last night, which will about complete the present run of coal.

—The Nashville Republican Banner, of Friday, says: Freights are exceedingly dull, as neither the cotton nor corn has begun to come in. The boats which have availed themselves of the recent untimely swell in the Cumberland, find the trade not at all commensurate with the current. We heard an old river man express the situation rather pointedly by declaring that what is now called "a good trip," could be packed in a large-sized bandana handkerchief.

—Mr. Jas. Watson, of Cincinnati, received the following letter from Polk, Boswell & Co., of Vicksburg, giving further particulars relative to the shooting affray on the Lida Norvell at that place: "Vicksburg, Sept. 30.—We telegraphed you yesterday in reference to your brother, L. D. Watson. On the afternoon of day before yesterday, just before the Lida Norvell was ready to go out, Capt. Smith came to the office and ordered your brother to pay a deck hand. Some altercation and hard words ensued when Smith drew a pistol, shot your brother in the left breast, two or three inches above the heart, and ran. Your brother gave chase and shot Smith twice as he ran, whose wounds will probably prove fatal. The wound of your brother is an ugly one, and the ball is somewhere in the cavity; but the Doctor thinks he will get well. So far he seems to be getting along quite well, and though he may be laid up a long time, we do not think there is much doubt of his recovery. The Lida Norvell went out as usual.

OUR Government officially recognizes the new revolutionary government of Spain as de facto exercising the national sovereignty.

THE President takes no active part in this campaign. Let him, in the same spirit, continue to maintain and enforce the Constitution and laws, and the last half year of his eventful administration may go very far in restoring to him the good opinions of his countrymen.

THE VIRGINIA rebels have already given notice of their intention to demand payment for their slaves, in the event of BLAIR'S election. The entire South will concur in the demand, and the cringing Democracy will allow it. Four thousand millions of dollars, at least, for that item!

EVERY VOTE against the Union State ticket means a vote for SEYMOUR and BLAIR. And every vote for these is a vote to repudiate our debt, strip our pensioned veterans, their widows or orphaned children of the pittance which a nation's bounty accords for their relief from starvation.

THE BLAIRS regard their prospects in Pennsylvania as desperate. MONTGOMERY complains that money is hard to get, the New Yorkers contributing nothing, so that, as he expressed it, the canvass was "hard work, and up-hill at that." As for FRANK, he is said to have told his friends in Washington that he had many doubts of the success of the Democratic ticket in this State next week.

NONE of the Democratic orators, who aver that SEYMOUR was loyal during the war, have yet succeeded in, or even attempted, any explanation of the fact that the government was obliged to withdraw troops from the very face of the Southern rebels, to watch and keep down this "loyal" Governor and his "friends" in New York. As soon as this circumstance shall be explained, we will mention it.

THE ELECTION of SEYMOUR and BLAIR would be accepted by the rebels as an overthrow of the XIVth amendment. They have made that distinctly an issue. That point gained, says the Mobile Tribune, "one of the very first things we will ask for will be the assumption of the rebel debt." This is forbidden by that amendment; when the latter shall fall, that debt may be at any time assumed at the pleasure of a Democratic Congress. Nor would it be long deferred by a party which is already bound hand and foot in slavery to the traitorous spirit which ruled its New York Convention.

SENATOR WILSON

Speaks to-night at the City Hall. Let us give this distinguished champion of Free Labor, of Honest Labor, of Intelligent Labor, such a rousing reception as shall convince him that the manufacturers, mechanics and operatives of this industrious centre have justly earned their pre-eminence in the National markets. Let him see that we have the brains to conceive, the nerve to sustain and the hands to execute; that we are a thinking as well as a doing people; that with clear heads and strong hands, we have hearts in the right place, and that we, who live by the Law of Honest work, know how to appreciate and honor the man whom Honest Work has self-made. HENRY WILSON is not SAM CAREY nor GEORGE H. PENDELTON, but he has, in his own personal and practical history, quite as good a title to talk to workingmen of their rights and duties in this crisis. Honor him to-night, fellow-citizens, and you will honor yourselves.

FORBEARANCE NOT A VIRTUE.

Whoever may have witnessed the infamously brutal and unprovoked assault made upon the Republican procession at and near the intersection of Wylie with Tunnel street, last evening, will admit that forbearance with the blackguards, some of whom made that attack, has ceased to be a virtue. The Mayor can, but apparently will not, protect Union men in the peaceable and quiet enjoyment of their public rights. He seems to have reaped—from the fiasco which thus far has been made of the proceedings to ventilate and punish the parties to the illegal assault upon an unoffending lady, committed in accordance with his official orders—fresh excuses for signalizing his inefficiency for good, or his ample sufficiency for mischief, and his "friends" in the purlieus of the old Third ward and elsewhere take the fullest license in outrage against Republican gatherings. We are now free to say to our friends that the right of self-defence is inalienable, and the time has come for its exercise. Be prepared for all such attacks hereafter, and, when repeated, go in and clean out the crowd who assault you. You have in vain demanded legal protection; now let it be seen that you can protect yourselves. Don't go out of your way, in the streets of this city, to seek a difficulty, or to avoid one. Go where your engagements or pleasure shall call you, and maintain your right to do so, in every necessary mode. The responsibility for any consequences is not yours.

MORE RECRUITS FOR GRANT.

We chronicle the accession of Judge STRONG, late of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, Hon. T. S. FERNON, formerly a Democratic Senator from Philadelphia, and Gen. SCHOFIELD, at present the Secretary of War under our Democratic administration. Gen. S. has heretofore been regarded as an extreme Conservative, and, when in command in Missouri, was not at all in favor with the Radicals there. We now find in print his letter of May 25th, dated at Richmond, and addressed to Gen. GRANT, congratulating him upon the Chicago nomination. The annexed quotations from this letter express the judgment and hopes of a very large and influential class of our citizens:

"The judicious selection of Mr. Colfax as second on the ticket, and the general practical wisdom displayed in framing the platform—that is, in laving down practical rules of action, based upon the necessities of the country, instead of abstract political theories—have greatly increased the probabilities of success, and at the same time made that success the more to be desired. I have always believed that the Union could be fully restored only by the men who put down the rebellion. * * * * * *Your election to the Presidency will be the end of our political troubles, as your accession to the Commander-in-Chief of the Army was the end of the Southern rebellion.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
J. M. SCHOFIELD, Brevet Maj. Genl."

GEN. MCCLELLAN has done himself marked honor in the significant terms with which his letter condemns the spurious Democracy of BLAIR, VALLANDIGHAM and PENDLETON. The same independence and honesty of old-fashioned Democratic principle which, in '64, led him to repudiate a part of the very Chicago platform on which he had been placed, prompts him again, in meaning phrase, to exclude rebellion, disloyalty and repudiation from his catalogue of Democratic principles. Take his letter, paragraph by paragraph, and read it in the light of the New York platform, and of the notorious records of the principal leaders in that assemblage of the party, rebels like FORREST and HAMPTON, traitors like VALLANDIGHAM, and repudiators like PENDLETON, and it must be confessed to be the most bitterly sarcastic and indignant commentary upon the present status of the Democracy. It is no longer to be wondered at that he intends to remain a "private citizen."

CONNECTICUT is making ready for a place in the Grant pyramid. Her people have heard from Maine and Vermont, and the news pleased them so well that their town elections on Monday last showed large Republican gains. As usual, the Democratic slate will be brought out, to prove that her elections were of no great consequence, being purely local, and all that, but you will see the Democracy taking so much pains to make this appear as to excite suspicion that they are hurt in a tender spot. The fact is that these town elections afford a very marked indication, that the State will join her New England sisters in a solid vote for GRANT and COLFAX.

THE Pacific Railway is opened to Green River, in Utah, 850 miles from Omaha. A telegram says that "it was the original intention to cease operations at Green River for the winter, but the road is to be pushed on to the Bear River Mountains, where Brigham Young's contract for grading commences."

HUMAN CONTRADICTIONS.

Human life is everywhere full of striking contrasts. Some of these are soluble upon principles which are disclosed on the very surface of events; while others of them are enigmatical, if not contradictory, defying critical analysis and baffling sagest investigation.

Perhaps the strongest presented in American life is found in the calmness and benignty, the philosophic poise and Christian charity, with which the Catholic hierarchy uniformly treat the black race, and the unmeasured contempt and hate, the inhuman cruelty and absolute fiendishness, with which the masses of their followers pursue the same people.

Yesterday morning it was announced in these columns that the Catholic Synod had promulgated the decree of the Plenary Council at Baltimore urging the immediate establishment of Schools and Orphan Asylums for colored children in the Southern States. This movement is not anomalous, but in strict accordance with both the practice and genius of the Catholic Church. With wonderful tenacity and uniformity it has not only insisted that all persons are equal before God's altar, but that they are alike entitled to the care and sympathy of the ministers of the Church, and to the enjoyment of whatever benefits arise from institutions of all sorts founded by the benefactions of the faithful. This is manifested in various ways. While Protestant Churches in this country, and particularly those in the larger cities, belonging to what are reputed the fashionable denominations, are steadily becoming mere appendages and ornaments of social life, —so costly and exclusive that the poor and those in barely comfortable pecuniary condition are shut away from them—the Catholic communion, as of old, opens the doors of its temples to all, without reference to worldly distinctions—and so opens them that pauper and millionaire feel equally at ease within the sacred enclosures. At Rome, under the shadow of the Papal throne—in the College of the Propaganda—students from all climes and of all races, meet in the same classes, on a common level. The church is cosmopolitan, not condescending to temporary passions or local prejudices. Like the ocean, it receives streams from all plains and all mountains, contracting it may be a trace of impurity from each, but remaining evermore—the ocean.

Day before yesterday Democratic processions defiled through the streets of these two cities. As to numbers and decorations it was a display creditable to the enterprise and liberality of the party. But, what impressed us most deeply was not the greatness of the throng, nor the lavish expenditure visible in emblazonments and music, nor the enthusiasm which evidently animated the whole, but the flaunting of legends, mottoes and devices, unblushingly avowing a coarseness of feeling, an illiberality of sentiment, a blindness of passion, an invincibility of prejudice, and a depth of hatred for the most lowly, altogether unsurpassed, if not unmatched in the annals of human ignorance and defilement. Those divisions of the processions in which the Catholic element predominated were infamously conspicuous beyond all the rest in thus displaying brutality. It seemed as if nothing was too low, or vulgar, or malignant for them to throw into the faces of the community as indicative of their sentiments and purposes towards the black race. Yet these people marvel at the disgust and contempt, mingled with pity and shame, which their conduct inspires among all classes of the American people who, by virtue of better mental and moral training have risen to juster views of life and the co-relations existing between all the members of the human family!

Where shall we search for the explication of this anomaly? When we have found it, what will it prove to be? Who will vouchsafe us answers?

ACQUISITION OF CUBA.

While it is confessed on all hands that covetousness is an indulgence forbidden by the moral law to individuals, it seems to be about as generally taken for granted that those aggregations of persons known as nations are at perfect liberty to covet as much as they please, and to take by guile or force whatever objects they desire.

Cuba has excited intense longings on the part of the people and government of the United States for many years. Its geographical position renders it convenient for us as a possession; possibly, under complications that may arise with other powers, an indispensable one.

Sometimes it has been proposed to acquire the sovereignty of it by the payment of a price to be mutually agreed upon. But Spain, often exhausted and distressed, has never been found so poor or desperate as to part with this gem of great value. At other times it has been determined to resort to fillibustering to gain the point. Expeditions have been set on foot, under cover of various pretences, to create a formidable insurrection in the island, which might be enlarged into the proportions of a revolution; but all these efforts have had no other result than to procure the execution of certain adventurous gentlemen who miscalculated the vigor of the Spanish authorities, the temper of the colonists, and their own resources. Then, again, it has been suggested that our government should seize and appropriate the island, and settle the bill of damages afterwards, according to the suggestions of its own liberality or selfishness. While not a few of our people have been eager that the republic should thus turn highway robber, a decided majority have been restrained from consenting thereto either by a proper regard for the dictates of honesty, or by a wholesome sense of shame, or by a fear of what the combined nations of Europe might say or do. Notwithstanding all these propositions, Cuba still remains an appendage of the Spanish crown.

But Spain has just undergone a revolution. Queen ISABELLA has found it to comport with her personal safety to take up her abode on the soil of France, and the leaders of the revolt against her rule are now engaged in adjusting the preliminaries for a new dynasty. It is thought at Washington they may need money, and be glad to raise it by selling Cuba. Hence Mr. SEWARD proposes to acknowledge the revolutionary government, and while extending that courtesy, in true Yankee fashion, offer to drive a bargain for the piece of land he wants. Undoubtedly this experiment is well-timed. But whether it will succeed or miscarry will depend not so much upon the astuteness of Mr. SEWARD as upon the need the Spanish chieftains are under for ready cash. It is not reasonable to presume in view of the enterprise they are engaged in, and the manner in which they are conducting it, that they will cheerfully despoil the monarchy of its best depedency. The force of circumstances, however, may leave them no other option. We venture to say that it will be safer to wait the results of the negotiations, than to rush prematurely to a conclusion.

"WHO will make the war," asks Mr. PENDLETON, "if we elect SEYMOUR and BLAIR; if we control the House of Representatives"? He is answered by BLAIR, who says that the President shall, with his army, make instant war upon the lawful governments in the Southern States. We shall not heed the Senate, says General BLAIR; there is no use in looking to the Supreme Court, say all of these advocates of revolution; let the President alone take all the responsibility, for neither Congress nor the Courts can aid him; he shall march his soldiery from State to State, overturn the new governments, and restore the lost cause. Mr. PENDLETON knows that this would be an arbitrary assumption of power, not recognized by the Constitution; he knows that no free people would submit to such an usurpation, and yet he would have it to appear that such an usurpation would be peace, and the resistance thereto of a free people would be the war which he speaks of. How differently this matter is put by another orator, who somehow finds himself making speeches for the Democracy, and yet cannot swallow BLAIR'S programme of Revolution! Said Attorney General STANBERY, in his Zanesville speech the other day, after advocating the election of SEYMOUR and a Democratic House of Representatives:

Finally, put a Democratic majority in the Senate, and then the good work will be finished. It will take time, perhaps more than it has taken to do the mischief. The process may be a slow one; but my Democratic friends, if you are of the same class of men as the Democracy of old—if you possess the same steadfast, unconquerable will, sooner or later success is ours.

That looks vastly more like true Democracy, but it is not the Democracy of the New York platform!

THE friends of SEYMOUR and BLAIR have succeeded in eliciting a sort of half-way halting endorsement of their ticket and platform from General MCCLELLAN. He gives BLAIR a dig, by insisting that the Constitution shall be firmly and faithfully supported; he pays his respects to the PENDLETON humbug by asking for "the maintenance of the national credit inviolate;" he expresses his judgment of VALLANDIGHAM, and the Southern rebels who framed both the platform and ticket, in his allusion to the recent war as "undertaken by the North for the success of Constitutional principles;" and he disgusts the entire party by his just compliments to General GRANT and the "other brave soldiers" who "so ably commenced this work."

If the Democracy can feel grateful to Gen. MCCLELLAN for all this, surely Republicans have no reason to complain!

SIX THOUSAND MILLIONS of rebel war debt, four thousand millions for slaves emancipated, thousands of millions more for property destroyed by the avenging Boys in Blue—every dollar of these claims, in all over ten thousand millions of dollars, will be just and legitimate liens on the Treasury, at the option of the South, and in the judgment of the Democracy, as soon as SEYMOUR and BLAIR shall be elected. As it is idle to talk of our ability to pay all these demands, the rebels will accept in lieu thereof the repudiation of the entire body of the National indebtedness, for all purposes incurred, and thus be doubly revenged upon their "Northern oppressors."

FROM PANAMA.

NEW YORK, October 6.—The steamer Ocean Queen brings $202,000 in treasure.

William Parken, Superintendent of the Panama Railroad, was assassinated on the 24th of September by J. L. Baldwin, Civil Engineer, in the employ of the railroad. The latter, who was suffering from delirium tremens, subsequently shot himself and would probably die.

Political affairs in Panama are still unsettled. Reports of a coming revolution were current, and several arrests had been made. The President had issued a proclamation stating that measures had been taken to keep peace.

The Republic of Colombia is quiet. The report of the anticipated return of Mosquera produced some alarm, but no serious effect. The deposed President, Falcon, of Venezuela, had reached Aspinwall en route to Europe.

SOUTH AMERICAN COAST.

News from the South coast gives further accounts of the fearful ravages by inundation and earthquakes. Several vessels were damaged at Coquimba, including the American ship Black Eagle, at Caldera.

The sea drove the inhabitants to the hills, wrecked sixteen or eighteen lighters, and damaged several larger crafts. Twenty lighters were wrecked at Carrisal Bago, besides the American brig Dolphin, with 20,000 kilogrammes of copper. Many vessels were damaged severely. The residents of Valparaiso have raised $40,000 for the sufferers by earthquakes, and the Chilian Congress appropriated $50,000 for the same purpose. The Government also sent large supplies of provisions, clothing and medicines to Peru.

Political affairs in Chili are unsettled. Mr. Clark, United States Consul at Valparaiso, was informally received by the President of Chili as Acting Minister during Gen. Kilpatrick's absence.

The Peruvian government is doing everything possible to relieve the sufferers by the earthquake and inundation, both in Peru and Ecuador. The victims in Peru will probably reach two thousand. A change has taken place in the sea coast at Peru in consequence of the earthquake, the depth of water off the headland of Sauraca, near Areca, having been decreased from six to seven fathoms. The loss of life in Ecuador was not less than forty thousand.

—From Port au Prince we have advices to October second. The Haytien man-of-war Galeta has arrived at Petit Governor, from New York, with a large cargo of arms and ammunition. She had a full complement of men, mostly Haytien negroes, some English and French officers, and a complete naval outfit. On her arrival she attacked the rebel cruisers Sylvan and Liberte. The former was sunk and the latter burnt by the crews to prevent them from falling into President Salnave's power. The latter had left on board the Galeta to bombard Miragone. Before leaving he took on board three hundred additional men.

—The election for officers of the school district in Mount Vernon, Westchester county, N. Y., was held on Monday. Mrs. McDonald and three other ladies offered their ballots at the polls but were politely told that they could not vote. Some five or six votes, which were cast for Mrs. McDonald and other ladies for Trustees, were thrown out in the count.

A SLIGHT COLD, COUGH,

Or SORE THROAT may be checked if a reliable remedy is applied at once, but if neglected very soon preys upon the lungs, and the result may prove fatal. The past few weeks of changeable temperature and cold rains are fruitful sources of troubles of the lungs, throat and chest. If you are attacked by a cold, no matter how slight, use at once

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP,

Which is an old and well tried remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all Affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is entirely free from any deleterious ingredient, and can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Gives sure and almost immediate relief to hoarseness and that annoying sensation, tickling, in the throat. If you would obtain a reliable remedy, be sure and call for

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP.

If your Druggist does not keep it, ask him to get it for you.

NOTE THESE FACTS.

The object of this article is to call the attention of the feeble and ailing to themselves. Ordinarily, business, pleasure, in short, almost everything in this sublunary world obtains more consideration than the preservation of that blessing with which nothing earthly should be put in comparison, viz: health. This is a dangerous season, and it does not find the human system in the best condition to defy its perils. To use a homely phrase, the torrid summer weather "takes the starch out of people," and leaves them limp and languid. The fires of vitality burn low. The naturally feeble are unusually depressed; the naturally strong are not as vigorous as they might be. Seven-eighths of the community feel more or less the influence of the atmospheric changes which produce the malarious diseases common in October and November. It is as a preventive against the effects of these changes that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS have obtained no small portion of that celebrity. The Great Vegetable Tonic of the Age is not only a specific or Chronic Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and Nervous Complaints, but also a preventive of malarious epidemics. Whoever wishes to be insured against an attack of intermittent or remittent fever (both of which prevail to a melancholy extent all over the country) will do well to resort, without delay, to this famous invigorating and anti bilious specific. Quinin has had its day. It leaves a sting behind, and physicians are beginning to discard it. But HOSTETTER'S BITTERS become more popular and command a vaster sale with each successive season, simply because they produce a better medicinal effect than any of the powerful poisons used as tonics, and are at once a safe and palatable preparation.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption so hopelessly incurable, and so mostsurely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the virtues of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle at DR. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 110 Wood st.

The State Fair.

The Pennsylvania State Fair closed on Friday last, after a very successful season of exhibition, the reception of large sums of money, the gratification of thousands of persons who attended, and the entire satisfaction of the managers at their unabated success. This is peculiarly gratifying, and it will justify the State Agricultural Society in endeavoring to do better next year.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the insured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 6, 1868.

Gold remained firm to-day at 140¼, and closed steady at 140⅜; cash gold being scarce again, it is loaned at 5-64 per cent. per day. The large bulls who bought from 144 down to 142, are determined if possible to carry up the premium to about 145 before the Pennsylvania elections, this at least is their programme. There is ent a very uneasy feeling, and thi probability is that the government will not interfere with the market value of gold by selling what might at present be deemed a surplus. European markets are less bouyent, and bonds can not be sold, there at a profit.

Government bonds are very dull, and there is no demand, either by speculators nor by investors at present prices; the market advanced to rapid on Friday last, to permit investors to come in at the low figures. The pressure to sell ceased about at a time when it was supposed it would commence, judging from the easy money markets on call loans a rise is almost unavoidable in the absence of other suitable investments, and during a dull business season.

Stocks were very firm, and excited early in the day. Pacific Mail advanced from 124 to 129¾; it having sold at 108 about ten days ago. Fort Wayne was 112¾, declined to 111½. New York Central declined from 130¼ to 129¾. Cleveland advanced and closed at 58. Erie had touched 148¼, but closed steady at 148⅝. Merchants Union Express sold at 23¼, strong; there is a large short interest in this stock, which may cause a sudden advance. Mining shares are firm, rnd are quietly bought up.

Money easy, and business very dull.

Mertz: Gold, 140⅜; United States 1881s, 113⅞; 5-20's, 1862, 113; 5-20's, 1864, 110¼; 5-20's, 1865, 110¾; 10-40's, 104¾; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 108½; 5-20's, January and July, '67 108¾; '68, 109½; June 7-30's, par less ⅛; July 7-30's. do ¼; August 119; Sept., 118½; Oct. 118; Union Pacific Railroad, 102; Central, 103.

—It transpires in regard to the "corner" in Chicago corn market that the shrewd operators there have been beaten at their own game. The game usually played is to saddle the losses on to some other city, but it seems that the country, taking advantage of the immensely over-ruled condition of the corn market, formed a combination, kept back supplies, and cornered the market. The losses are immense, and so generally distributed as to shake mercantile confidence to its center. If we could only hope this would break up gambling in the necessaries of life there would be little to regret. The Republican, of Monday, says: In grain circles the chief feature of the week has been the "corner" on corn, which has proven even more disastrous to the interests of our grain merchants than did the "corner" on wheat in June last. We have previously given accounts of this last "corner" on corn; so shat it is unnecessary to go into detail here. Numerous failures have occurred, a number being reported to-day. The subject of abolishing "corners" is still discussed with vigor, and each day brings forth a new remedy.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.: Gold, 140⅜; United States Sixes, 1881's, 113⅞; 5-20's, 1862, 113; 5-20's, 1864, 110¼; 5-20's, 1865, 110¾; 10-40's, 104¾; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 108½; 5-20's, January and July, '67 108¾; '68, 109½; June 7-30's, par less ⅛; July 7-30's. do ¼; August 119; Sept., 118½; Oct. 118; Union Pacific Railroad, 102; Central, 103.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 6, 1868.

CRUDE.

The market was again fairly active today, the sales in the aggregate reaching ten thousand five hundred barrels; as will be seen, however, prices are lower, spot being offered at 12½ against a sale yesterday at 13, and late in the day November and December sold at 12, against sales early in the day for the same delivery at 12½. The sales reported were as follows: 500 bbls spot at 12½; 2,000 each November and December at 12½; 1,000 each for same months at 12½; and 2,000 each same months—later in the day —at 12. From the above it will be seen that while the sales were somewhat larger than on the day preceding, prices are about half a cent lower, and we give as the closing prices 12¼ on spot, and 12 for November and December.

REFINED.

The market for Refined was rather quiet and a little weak to-day, and October, compared with yesterday, is off a full half a cent. The sales reported were: 1,000 bbls for November at 30½c; 500 each for November and December on private terms, and 500 first half of October at 31c. Late in the day the first half of October was offered at 30½ to 31c, and the last half at 31½c; November at 30½c, and December at 30c. There are some "lines" offering, extending away into 1869, but thus far, none of them have been sold, and we omit quotations.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TESUDAY, October, 6, 1868.

There is really but little that is new or important to be said about the markets in a general way. The still further decline in Wheat and Flour in Chicago is the most prominent topic of discussion in commercial circles just now, and the impression is pretty general that the bottom has been touched, though that has been the case for two or three weeks past. Wheat is now about 60c per bushel below the average price of last year in Chicago, and there is about the same difference in Flour. Indeed, both of these articles are now much lower than the most sanguine prophets of low prices expected, and while it is hardly probable, it is possible, that the bottom may not have beeu touched yet.

BUTTER—Is in fair supply, but prices remain unchanged; 35 to 38c for packed, and 40 to 43c for choice Roll.

EGGS—Steady at 24 to 25.

CHEESE—Is firmer, and in fair demand; sales of Hamburg and Factory at 17 to 18c, and Goshen and Sweitzer at 19 to 20c.

SEEDS—Flaxseed continues scarce and in demand at $2,50. Timothy Seed is in good supply and dull at $3,50. Small sales of Cloverseed, in a retail way, at $9.

PROVISIONS—Bacon unchanged at 13½ for Shoulders; 15½ to 16c for Ribbed, and 17½ to 18c for Clear Sides, and 20c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard 20½c, in tierces, and 21 in kegs. Mess Pork, $30,50 to $31.

LARD OIL—Firm but unchanged at $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

POTATOES—Sales of Peach Blows and Neshannocks, at $1 per bushel, and $3 to $3,25 per bbl. Sweets abundant and dull with sales at $4,50 to $5 per bbl.

CRANBERRIES—Sales at $16 per bbl.

GRAIN—There is no movement in Wheat in this market, and prices are entirely nominal. Oats quiet and unchanged at 65 to 66 on track, and 68 to 70 in store. Barley is in limited supply and steady at $1,90 to $2, as to quality. Corn is quotable at $1,15 to 1,18 for small lots. Rye is nominal at $1,40 to $1,45.

SALT—Is quiet and unchanged; at $1,75 to the trade and $1,90 to $2 for small lots in store.

WHISKY—Is steady with a fair demand at $1,25 for Rectified and $1,35 for Highwines.

FLOUR—Is dull but unchanged. Spring Wheat brands are quoted at $8,50 to $9,25 for good to choice, and Winter Wheat at $10 to $10,50. The mills continue to quote at $10,30 in bbls, and $10 in sacks for Extra Family; Double Extra at $10,80 in bbls, and $10,50 in sacks. Rye Flour, $8.50.

Chicago Market.

Corn active; sales No. 1 at 86¼a87¼, No. 2 at 85a86c, and rejected at 84a85c, closing at 87¾a88c for No. 1; sales No. 1 this afternoon at 88½c. Oats in good shipping demand and ¼a½c lower; sales at 49¼a50c for No. and 47c for rejected, closing at 49¾a50c for No. 1. Rye less active at $1.17a1,19 for No. 1, $1,18 for No. 2 and $1,08 for rejected, closing at the inside price for No. 1. LAWRENCE, Oct. 2, 1868.

Since my last I have been traveling round in various directions, and find the same things of which I have hitherto spoken—abundance of fine lands and of strangers traveling to and fro looking for locations. Very many are content to take lots of eighty acres, the half of quarter sections—80 by 160 perches. Some only take forty acres, which is a square of eighty perches. Unimproved lands range from say five to twenty dollars per acre within the more thickly settled portions of the State; in the more remote regions they can be had at $1.25 to 3.00. Men who propose to go largely into stock raising generally push out to the more remote sections; but others who desire pleasant homes, in reach of markets, schools, churches, mails and neighbors, pitch their tents accordingly. Men act wisely in taking no more land than they are able to use profitably; for money saved in this way can be much more advantageously used in making improvements, and in the purchase of good agricultural implements, fruit trees, &c.

I have observed a good deal of the effects of what is called "squatting." Men destitute alike of means, knowledge, enterprise or industry, planted themselves at an earlier day upon quarter sections, reared shanties unfit for human habitation, enclosed small patches which they cultivated in a slovenly manner, leaving perhaps one hundred and forty of their one hundred and sixty acres mere commons. Like dogs in the manger they held what they could not use. But taxation and other expenses are forcing all such non-progressive occupants to sell out, and their places are being supplied by others who can make the land contribute to the general wealth and prosperity of the State. It is, however very true that many of these original squatters did well. I know of one man who took up a quarter section about six miles from Lawrence, and in about ten years has so improved it that he was offered and refused $35,000 for it. It is really worth more. He was quite poor when he began.

The other day while I was sitting in the office of a land agent two colored men came in and paid $400 for a quarter section. When they finished their business and left, the agent told me that those were two of eight colored men of family who had combined their little means in this way in order to get and keep together, so that they could have a school of their own, and be a little community among themselves. Each is to have a lot of twenty acres—enough, if well cultivated, to insure him a good living. The money was handed to the agent in eight separate parcels rolled up in paper, each parcel containing fifty dollars. I admired the wisdom of these men, and thought if some poor white men I wot of were to do likewise it would be well for them.

Kansas is not likely to become a State of monster farms like Illinois, but the very opposite. This difference may perhaps arise from the very different physical conformation of the two States. One is largely made up of extensive plains, tempting men to add acre to acre and sometimes section to section in one huge, continuous unbroken plantation; the other is undulating, diversified in surface, and but little of it suited to the formation of continuous farms each of which may be measured by miles. Little farms and many of them is the rule here. It is better. The first must ultimately lead, in some degree, to a landed aristocracy, unfavorable to social equality and the general welfare, as has long been the case in the Southern States. In Kansas a social state the very opposite is being inaugurated. A denser and more prosperous population will be the result. Land ought to be measured, not so much by the acre, as by its productive power; and I hesitate not to say that in this respect Kansas is, acre for acre, of double the value of Pennsylvania. This being so, a farm here of eighty acres is as adequate to the support of a family, and to its thrift, as one of twice the number of acres there.

It was a great mistake on the part of Congress to give to each head of a family, under the Homestead law, a quarter section of land. Half the quantity would have been better for the poor men, who avail themselves of its provisions, and far better for the country, and for the cause of education and religion. They are too much scattered to thrive either in their private or social interests. These railroad grants of alternate sections have in a measure corrected this evil, for within the range of these grants homesteads of only eighty acres can be acquired on the remaining alternate sections; but they are preferred to the one hundred and sixty acre grants beyond those ranges, because settlers are anxious—and wisely so—to get as near to these roads as they can. All this proves the wisdom of these railroad grants, for we find that the remaining sections are of more value, whether for sale or homesteads, than the whole was without the roads. The sale price, as is well known, is doubled, the sales are hastened, the country is settled and improved, and the savages driven back.

I think a glorious future awaits this State. Probably not one of our new States has ever been filled up with a population so moral and intelligent. Many of them, it is true, are poor and struggling, occupying small and cheap dwellings, hardly fit for the purpose. The other day while walking alone over the lonely prairies I came to a poor little house just erected. I met two little girls at the gate whose conversation indicated good and refined manners. They invited me to walk into the house. I did so, and found the mother engaged at her needle, and a smaller child with a spelling book at her knee. She received me with the easy courtesy of a well-bred lady, and I sat and rested for some time in pleasant conversation. She was from Pennsylvania. There was but one apartment in that house. This is only one example of the kind among many that have come under my observation.

I shall have more to say, for I am going up to Sheridan, over the Kansas Pacific Railway, with an excursion party, 405 miles west of the Missouri. C.

The Boys in Blue Convention at Philadelphia—The Pittsburgh Democratic Convention.

TUESDAY, October 6th, 1868,

MR. EDITOR: I've just come back from the Philadelphia Convention, and a good old time I had there. The Boys in Blue were there and the Tanners were there, and so were the Grant Clubs. Besides these, I was there; which, as far as your correspondent is concerned, was far more important. The trouble with us all was the immense number of Copperheade who were in town. Probably fifty came to town during the week, so, although there were as many thousand Republicans came, it was a dreadful Copperhead gain, just as the Maine election was. Forney has a bulletin over his door which says that the Maine majority was 22,000. This gives the Democrats much comfort, for they say the majority really was but 20,518, and therefore, as Forney says it was 22,000, the Democratic gain was the difference, which is 1,482. I like to see the Democrats pleased in that way, and they are deserving of much praise for being so easily pleased. I don't think they are deserving of much praise for any thing else, but I don't think they look for it, and that in itself is a virtue. Gen. Kilpatrick was in the Quaker City when I was (which, if properly considered, is a coincidence.) The old cavalrymen look on him with a good deal of pride, but they call him Kill-kavalry, which name was a very appropriate one some years ago, when he did kill a good deal of the chivalric cavalry, clad in gray, but now Kill-kopperheads would suit him better. He is very popular with the soldiers and the people, and his little speeches were very well received, and a good reception is a good thing, as the Pittsburgh delegation to Philadelphia can testify, for they got an excellent one when they went there, one which they won't be likely to forget soon either, (either is a pretty good sort of a word itself if you don't pronounce it eye-ther.)

Independence Hall was a popular place during the convention, as it was during the other convention of 1776. The Democrats have too much respect for the fitness of things to ever use this fine old hall for their purposes, although they do have the impertinence sometimes to use the American flag; but, as has been said previously, you must be as little dissatisfied as possible with the Democrats, although they do not possess every virtue. Like the baby that died, they can't help it, and like the celebrated eels, we have got pretty well used to it.

When I came home from Philadelphia, where I had seen a grand concourse of tens of thousands of respectable citizens, I was not pleasantly surprised to see our old town filled with the tag-rag and bob-tail, but I suppose when so many of the decent population went to Philadelphia, they thought it a good time to steal a march on Pittsburgh. The first thing I saw on Liberty street was a very disreputable thing in the shape of a Democrat, and as if that fact alone were not degredation enough, he was a drunken Democrat, which might be abbreviated to D.D., if it were not for our respectable divines who, I have no doubt, would rather be classed with dirty Devils than drunken Democrats. I was stopped on the corner of Fifth and Smithfield by the procession. I looked at it for an hour and was beginning to be astounded at the sameness of the show, when a man in a wagon, whose gay decorations looked very familiar, shouted out to me, "Hullo, old feller, you must be tired; I've passed you three times now, and you're always in the same place; if you're not gone by the next time I come around, I'll bust your snoot." As I did not wish to have my snoot busted, I left and went over to see the row in Allegheny. I have seen Donnybrook Fair, and the old Richmond fairs, too, but I never saw such drunken brutality as I witnessed in Allegheny. But, then, as has been mentioned, all the virtues must not be looked for in the Democrats, who, though they get drunk, swear, beat women, murder, burn, rape, bluster, break into houses, and lie tremendously, have still two virtues—they don't expect people to think they are decent, and they have invented a new system of arithmetic, which has been adopted by the Post. Don't think I am a Democrat because I apologize this way for the Copperheads, for I am not. I am only EPH.

Strange Freaks of Electricity in a Tin Shop.

[From the Reno (Cal.) Crescent, Sept. 12.]

Last Saturday evening was very cloudy, and the sky surrounding Reno seemed completely suffused with electricity. The lightning blazed incessantly for two hours; and nearly all the time the thunder came to us in muffled moans, as it used to back in God's country, when a summer shower had passed by. Still only a few drops of rain fell in Reno, and no one here thought the storm was nearer than about five or eight miles distant. But in Morris' tin-shop, of this place, one of those strange phenomena took place which happens at rare intervals in the world. Morris noticed that a boy in his establishment was handling the tools very gingerly, and he asked him why he did so. The boy said something was the matter with them. Morris caught hold of an iron which the boy was attempting to use, and let right go of it again. He then seized the big scissors, used by tinners for cutting tin, and they retaliated by sending him stumbling, stunned and almost falling across the shop. Then, as if the evil one had commenced a game of billiards, little balls of fire commenced hopping about, kissing bits of iron here and there, and making grand caroms on the coal furnace. Morris speedily took a hint, concluded everything metallic was charged with electricity, and feeling uncertain when it might make a charge on him, he did not stand on the order of his going, but left the shop at once. Next morning the evil spirit had been exercised, and since then the tin shop has been quiet.

TAYLOR AVENUE.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

The Allegheny Councils will meet to-morrow evening.

The Engine companies turning out in the Democratic demonstration were paid for the service.

Straws.—A vote taken in the tombs last night resulted as follows: For Seymour, 17; Grant, 2; Brush, 3; Blackmore, 16. The jail vote has not yet been heard from.

Man Killed.—Late last evening a man fell off one of the trains on the Pennsylvania railroad at Derry station and was instantly killed. We did not learn his name or further particulars.

The Republican primary election of the Second ward to nominate ward officers and members of Council will be held on Saturday afternoon at the School House, between the hours of four and six o'clock.

Released on Bail.—From a St. Louis paper we learn that Capt. W. B. Donaldson, charged with killing a negro boy on the steamer Republic several months since, has been admitted to bail in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

The National Guards. Captain Schoonmaker, hold a meeting to-morrow evening at McCallum Brothers' warehouse, 51 Fifth avenue, for the transaction of business concerning the torchlight procession in Allegheny on Monday night next.

"Eaqual Wrights," "Pricinct," "Ruster," "Buro," "Bast," "Blare," "Taxsation," "Currency," and "Fiting" are a few samples of the orthography of the opposition on their banners on Monday. A schoolmaster is wanted by the Democracy.

The Seventh and Eighth Wards Marching Phalanx will assemble this evening at six o'clock, at Franklin street school house, preparatory to escorting Hon. Henry Wilson from the Monongahela House to the mass meeting at Hare's Hotel.

Aggravated Assault.—James Pillow made information yesterday before Alderman Taylor against Neil McCallow for aggravated assault and battery. Prosecutor alleges that McCallow knocked him down and beat him in a brutal manner. A warrant was issued.

In styling as "a mean scamp" a gentleman who figured in a police case, reported yesterday, we feel, after learning the full particulars, that we did him injustice. He had cause for his conduct, and like all men who can "hoe their own row" used the violence reported.

Straw.—In the Cincinnati Express which left Philadelphia Monday evening at eight o'clock, the vote of the train was taken by J. F. Neely, of Allegheny, Republican, and Jno. B. Campbell, of Altoona, Democrat, resulting as follows: Grant and Colfax, 166; Seymour and Blair, 34.

The Columbia Hook and Ladder Company announce their annual ball at Lafayette Hall on Thanksgiving eve. The affair, we have no hesitancy in saying, is in good hands, and those fond of such amusements will find ample opportunity to gratify their desire by attending. The redoubtable Christy does the figure calling.

There was carried by the butchers, on Monday, in the Democratic procession, a transparency representing a frisky cow having a man hanging on to the tail. It was supposed to be emblematic of Seymour, the dairyman's exploit. The cow represented the Government, the teats the treasury. Mr. Seymour could get no better hold on the cow than the tail—and no more editing is necessary.

Two Charges.—Emma Waters made two informations before Alderman McMasters yesterday, against Rachel Kinney,—one for aggravated assault and battery, and the other for surety of the peace. Emma states that Rachel jumped upon her, beat and abused her, and struck her with a brick, winding up the performance with divers fierce threatenings. Rachel was arrested and gave bail for a hearing to-day.

Knox's Grape Show.—This annual exhibition of grapes comes off to day, 7th inst., on the Knox Fruit Farm, and promises to be of very great interest. In addition to showing the grapes on the vines, Mr. Knox will exhibit over seventy varieties on tables. The opportunity of seeing so many kinds in one collection is rare, and will attract many visitors. Many distinguished grape-growers from a distance will be present.

The City Republican Executive Committee will meet on Wednesday next, 7th instant, at three o'clock, P. M., in the Council Chambers. Members of the Committee are requested to procure from their respective Wards a full list of the Ward candidates, and hand, or send, them to T. J. Craig, Chairman of Committee on Printing, so that they may be printed in good time, and without cost to the respective Wards. A full meeting is desired. 2

Bad Spells.—The orthography of the transparencies of the Democratic banners on Monday was as mortifying to the few intelligent "unterrified," as was the bad spell of weather which the Republicans experienced at their turnout. Here are a few specimens: Above the head of a negro, "an inteligent voter?" "We shuld do our duty." "Trust in Gob," was the most striking motto, and served to show that the Democrats have forgotten how to spell the name of their Creator.

The Allegheny Stabbing Affair.—Andrew Alexander, of this township, who stabbed Charles Pfoff, Adam Beplar's bar-keeper, and Christ. Schrey, on Monday evening, had a hearing before Mayor Drum yesterday afternoon, on a charge of felonious assault and battery, preferred by Christ. Schrey. Conclusive evidence was shown that Alexander did the cutting, and His Honor held him to bail for trial. In the case of Charles Pfoff no information has yet been made, and Alexander still remains in the lock-up awaiting the result of Pfoff's injury.

Personal.—Rev Joseph King, the much esteemed and appreciated pastor of the First Christian Chapel, Allegheny City, arrived home yesterday after a very pleasant and extended tour throughout Continental Europe. His jottings by the wayside have been published in the GAZETTE, and will compare more than favorably with the usual run of foreign letters, being instructive, entertaining and racy. We welcome the Reverend gentleman home and here take occasion to thank him for his much appreciated letters to our journal from abroad as they proved no secondary feature of our pages.

Fair and Festival.—The ladies of Grace Church, Mount Washington, have prepared a variety of fancy articles, which are arrayed with admirable taste and are for sale at Masonic Hall, where also refreshments will be served this evening. Now that processions are so much in vogue, gentlemen and ladies not opposed to union in the State of ——, would find the Hall a most convenient and attractive place for a joint procession or promenade around tables covered with chaste adornments or laden with tempting viands. Any profits arising from this fair and festival will be in aid of Grace Church, Mount Washington, which we mention as a still better motive for the patronage due to the estimable ladies who have gotten up and are conducting the fair.

THE ALLEGHENY SCHOOLS.

Meeting of the Board of School Controllers—Reports of Local Boards—Teachers Elected in the Eighth Ward—The Eighth Ward Tax Difficulty—The Holiday Question.

A regular monthly meeting of the Allegheny Board of School Controllers was held last evening in the Common Council Chamber, City Building. At seven and a half o'clock the meeting was called to order by R. B. Francis, upon whose motion, in the absence of the President, Rev. E. E. Swift was called to the chair. Rev. Swift opened with prayer.

The Secretary, R. B. Francis, Esq., called the roll when the following persons answered to their names:

Messrs. Barr, Brown, Jno. Jr., Brown Jno. K., Boyle, Barker, Chadwick, Dunlap, Eaton, Francis, Grouard, Jackson, Kollock, Loomis, Lea, Lockhart, Moul, Mussler, McRoberts, McCance, McConnell, McClinton, Oakley, Pitcairn, Parke, Sutton, Swift, Thorn, Torrence, Tremble, and White.

The minutes were read and approved.

REPORTS OF THE LOCAL BOARDS.

Reports from the First, Second and Third wards were received, showing a flourishing condition of affairs in all of the schools.

Mr. Kollock, from the Fourth Ward Board, reported an increase of two hundred in the average attendance in that ward.

Mr. Parke, from the Fifth ward Board, reported the schools in a crowded condition, and the refusal of the Sixth ward Board to accommodate their scholars according to agreement.

Mr. Chadwick, from the Sixth ward, reported the schools crowded to their utmost capacity, and the impossibility of receiving any more scholars even from their own ward, and the consequent necessity for refusing admission to those from the Fifth ward.

There were no reports from the Seventh and Eighth wards.

President Clark having now arrived, the Chair was vacated in his favor by Mr. Swift.

Mr. Kollock, from the Committee on Evening Schools, presented the report of that Committee relative to the opening of the night schools for the colored children, recommending the establishment of the same. The report was accepted and the recommendation adopted.

Mr. Eaton, from the Committee on Colored Schools, reported that the schools had been opened at the proper time, with the usual attendance, the average for the month being eighty-eight. The Committee recommended the adoption of the resolution for the payment of a Janitrix for twelve months instead of ten, as heretofore.

Owing to the establishment of the night schools for the colored children, the introduction of gas into the school building was rendered necessary, which they recommended.

The report further recommended the payment of the same amount to S. A. Neale for his services in the colored evening schools as that paid to other ward principals for the same labor.

The report was accepted and the recommendations adopted.

Mr. Kollock moved that 1,500 copies of the annual report of the Board of Control be printed instead of 750 as originally ordered. Adopted.

Mr. Kollock presented a preamble and resolution relative to the proceedings of the Board from its organization up to 1860, requesting the former Secretaries to institute a search for said record and deliver it to the present Secretary. Carried.

Mr. Francis read a communication from the Eighth Ward School Board, reporting the election of the following teachers for the schools in that ward for the ensuing year: Principal, Miss Helen Renwick, at a salary of $90 per month; Medium, Miss Theresa A. Ebert, at $50 per month; Primary, Miss S. H. Haller, at $40 per month. The communication was received and the elections confirmed.

Several bills were presented and ordered to be paid.

Mr. Francis stated that there was some difficulty in regard to the collection of taxes in the Eighth ward. The treasurer had collected part of the tax, as a representative of the city, while another tax collector of the ward had collected as a representative of the ward. The former had collected ten mills, while the latter collected but eight mills. The matter should be adjusted as soon as possible, as the treasurer was making up his yearly accounts, which would be rendered before the next meeting of the Board.

The President suggested that the matter should be referred to the Finance Committee.

A motion to refer the matter to the Finance Committe, with power to act, was carried.

Mr. Eaton read a communication from the Committee on Colored Schools, giving a history of the organization, from which it appears that the schools were organized on the 15th of November, 1837, in the basement of the Baptist Church, on Robinson street. Miss Matilda Ware was appointed as the first principal, and continued in that capacity for nearly twenty-nine years, when a higher salary called her elsewhere.

Prof. S. A. Neale was then elected to fill the position which he has occupied for the last twelve years. Since their organization in the church building the schools have been located in various portions of the city, and finally became settled in the commodious and convenient building which they at present occupy. The present building is located on Webster street, Second ward, and has been fitted up in an admirable manner for the purpose. It contains four rooms, three of which are furnished. It is well lighted and ventilated, and the furniture is of the best quality. The play-ground is of suitable size, and the whole affair is one which entirely meets the wants of the colored population, and will, in all probability, do so for fifteen years to come. The enrollment of pupils for the past year was 278, with an average attendance of 178. The fifteenth of November in each year is always observed as anniversary, to commemorate the organization of the schools.

The following appointments of teachers for the evening schools in the various wards were approved:

First Ward—Assistant Principal Miss Mary Carpenter.

Second Ward—Assistant, Miss L. V. Brown.

Third Ward—Assistants, Misses Hunter, Logan, Oglesby, Hull and Bennett.

Fourth Ward—Misses Mary Morton and Hughes.

After some discussion the appointments were confirmed.

THE HOLIDAY QUESTION.

Mr. Barker moved that the various schools be dismissed one day during the County Fair.

Mr. Eaton amended that Friday be the day appointed for the schools to visit the fair in a body.

Mr. Brown opposed the motion. He thought that those who wished to attend the fair should do so, and those who wished to attend school should have the schools open for them.

After some further discussion, the motion was lost.

Mr. Swift moved that the question be referred to a special committee to report for future operations.

Mr. Boyle amended that no school be dismissed for a holiday without previous notice from the Board.

Mr. Brown thought a standard rule would not cover the question. The schools should be open whenever fifty per cent. of the scholars were in attendance.

Mr. Boyle's amendment not being seconded, the original motion was put and adopted.

Mr. McConnell, of the Eighth ward, asked for information respecting the collection of taxes in his ward, whether they would have to wait until the report of the Finance Committee was acted upon at the next regular meeting.

The President stated that the Committee were invested with power to act.

Mr. Brown moved that five per cent. be allowed such tax-payers as shall have paid the school tax before the first of November.

Considerable discussion ensued on this motion, after which it was carried.

On motion, adjourned.

Chapter of Misdeeds—How Democrats do Things.

In a few items, published yesterday, we referred to several instances coming incidentally to our notice of how at least a portion of the Democratic moving figures operated, while going the rounds the day before, assaulting, insulting and outraging decency wherever and whenever the least opportunity presented. We have no desire to do the participants in that demonstration the least wrong, and will correct anything which may be misstated or aggravated. The formation of the procession in Allegheny, in the first place, was a preconcerted movement, intended to create a breach of the peace, because the people over there are overwhelmingly against them, and it is a notorious fact that the delegations from the Bull Run district and the First and Twelfth wards, of this city, threatened before they reached Allegheny that not one of their number should be arrested, that they would rescue them if it necessitated the sacking of the Mayor's office, though they were ever so guilty of misconduct. Now to the facts:

In front of Colonade row on Federal street some little girls cheered for Grant, in response to cheers from the ranks for Seymour and Blair. The brave mud-larks of the old Third ran out of the ranks, mistaking, however, the source of the cheering, and pitched into an old man named Clokey, from California, Washington county, who came to the city to see the procession. He and his wife, an elderly lady of over sixty years of age, were quietly watching the pageant (?), doubtless appreciating the display, as Mr. Clokey himself trains in that school of politics. He was knocked down, beat over the head with torch-handles, kicked, and to add to the climax of this abuse, one Hugh Ward, an officer, struck the old man over the head with his sword, and it is further stated against this ponderous specimen of manliness, that he knocked down and struck the old lady. Be this as it may, Mrs. Clokey was terribly abused by this blood thirsty gang. At this point the police made an arrest of a man named John Fox, one of the party, and with great difficulty succeeded in bringing him to the lockup. In the disturbance old man Clokey lost his pocketbook containing over two hundred and forty dollars. This loss can readily be accounted for. The old man and lady were conducted to Carson's, on Ohio street, where they were stopping, and are receiving all the attention possible.

The fact of the arrest of Fox, coming to the ears of Hugh Ward, he headed a column en masse to effect his release. The rescuing column were kept at bay along the street by a detachment of the police force until the top of the steps leading to the Mayor's office was reached. At this point the excited Democrats were repulsed by additional reinforcements of the police, who pulled mysterious weapons out of their pockets, sleveling and taking deadly aim at the rescuers. Not being used to facing this kind of argument the great mass of them turned tail, and got out of reach as quickly as possible. A number of determined fellows, full of fighting whisky remained, but they were soon felled. It is stated at this juncture the police were ordered to charge, and charge they did. Not less than twenty Democrats were felled in a twinkling, and almost as soon secured in the tombs, the mace having done the work.

At another point in the procession some little boys halloed for Grant and a portion of the same crowd made a rush to redress the grievance, when officer Montgomery tried to preserve quiet, and for his trouble he was set upon by the rowdies, beat with sticks and cut over the head with a saber by a fellow named Ward, the same individual who struck Mr. Clokey. Ward was among those arrested, previously referred to. A charge of aggravated assault and battery has been preferred against him by the officer, and in addition to the payment of a fine of $25 and costs for attempted rescue, he is held to bail in the sum of $1,000 for trial.

Officer Dan. Graham, a very good Democrat, in his efforts to preserve peace and save a number of little girls from the violence of the rowdies, was attacked and beaten over the head with torch handles and clubs. His head has some very largely developed bumps. Yesterday morning, on Federal street, near Swartz's drug store, a great burly fellow on horse back responded to a faint cheer for Grant from a little girl by inflicting a severe gash on her cheek with his whip. He rode on unmolested, proud of his prowess.

On Ohio street, in front of John Bush's tobacco store, a woman named Mrs. Gill—by the way, a very good Democrat—in some way offended a horseman who had dismounted to take a drink. It is possible she was a little spunky, and showed fight. She was kicked in the stomach and knocked down by this cowardly brute.

At the Columbia Engine House a number of the members of that company had their wives and sisters assigned places in their hall overlooking the procession. Occasional cheers were given for Grant by some of the ladies, when a number of mud-larks left the ranks and attempted to go up stairs to punish the indignity. It is needless to say that Columbia's sons would protect her daughters, and the assailants were met at the threshold by a wall of Republicans, who never turned tail upon the enemy where the rebels were braver than this invading column. A fight ensued, pistols were fired, and the "muds" retreated in disorder.

Further on as the old Third ward delegation was standing in line on St. Clair (now Sixth) street, in front of the Sherman House, a fight occurred between one of the members of the delegation and a man on the sidewalk. Mr. Lowry, proprietor of the house, stepped out among the combatants and attempted to restore order. The members of the delegation misunderstood his movement, and at once turned upon him. He ran into the bar-room closely pursued, but succeeded in making his escape. His pursuers then commenced to destroy the bar fixtures, and their efforts in this direction were an entire success. Fancy bottles were broken, mirrors shattered, and windows demolished. About twenty dollars in postal currency and notes which were in the money drawer were taken by the crowd. The house was finely illuminated at the time of the attack, and the lanterns and flags with which it was decorated suffered considerable damage.

It is idle to enumerate. We have not the space. The processions, day and night, were remarkable for the views displayed, more frequently on inoffensive children and women, and old men.

We will not close this account, without giving great credit to the Allegheny police, acting under Mayor Drum's orders, to preserve the peace, for their determination to do their duty, under the most trying circumstances. To their devotion to duty, in places where it was as much as a man's life to differ, let alone make an arrest, they battled against odds, and, as far as their force would permit, saved the city from greater disorder and riot than did prevail.

The following arrests were made for the attempted rescue and disorder at the Allegheny Mayor's office on Monday night. They had a hearing yesterday morning, and their cases were disposed of as follows: Richard Burke, $25 and costs; committed to jail. Hugh Ward, $25 and costs: he paid his fine. David Clemens, Pat. Connelly, James Mitchell, Pat. Gill and Peter Martin each paid twenty-five dollars fine and costs. George Gibbons, Richard Haley, and John Fox in default of fine were committed for thirty days to jail.

Bloody Third Still Rampant.

As a number of the Grant and Colfax Clubs were marching to the Republican meeting on the corner of Fulton street and Webster avenue last evening, they necessarily passed through a portion of the Bull Run District. The head of the column had scarcely reached the foot of Wylie street when symptoms of an assault were fearfully prevalent. The denizens of the Bull Run district lined the sidewalk, and almost filled the street, scarcely allowing room for the Clubs to march in four ranks. They hooted, groaned, cheered and offered every indignity possible to the moving column, who passed on quietedly, taking everything good humoredly. This served to make the crowd more boisterous and demonstrative, and the rear of the column approaching, they mustered sufficient courage to attack it. The Fourth ward Pittsburgh, and First ward, Allegheny, were on the extreme left, and of course suffered the brunt of the pressure. A shower of stones were thrown from parties on the pavement, the missiles striking and injuring several members of the club, the crowd the while gradually closing upon the moving column to interrupt its progress, and cut off a portion of the delegation. The members defended themselves as well as they could against such odds, resisting the pressure and marching in close column, and fighting their way through. Word finally reached the head of the column that the rear of the procession was being attacked, and immediately Capt. Alex. P. Callow, of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, Minute Men, ordered his men to about face and charge double quick upon the enemy. The order was readily complied with, and for a little while things looked lively. The attacking party gave way before the charge of the Tanners, retreating, yelling and groaning like demons. The order to halt was not given until the rebs had been driven several squares, and a number of them severely injured. The Second ward, Allegheny, Grant Skirmishers also about faced, marching double quick in support of the Fourth ward, but they were not actively engaged. The entire column then marched to the meeting.

It appeared, however, from what we can learn, that the roughs were not satisfied with their prowess, and while the meeting was in progress, mustered in still greater force to renew the assault on the return of the Cinbs homeward. Fortunately for the good name of our city, we were doubtless saved a bloody exhibition by the Grant Clubs taking an entirely different route. Word was also sent to Mayor Blackmore of the intended assault, and he immediately responded in person, supported by a squad of police. His presence and counsel, with the police to support, contributed severely to prevent the intended outbreak. We would take this occasion, however, of suggesting to our boys at no time to provoke an assault, but when assaulted defend by an understood movement and well defined plan of operation. This is the only redress, and is your privilege.

Allegheny City Torchlight Procession.

A meeting was held on Monday night, at the rooms of the Fourth Ward, Allegheny, Tanner Club, on Sandusky street, by the delegates from the Tanner Clubs of the different wards of Allegheny City, with a view to getting up a torchlight procesion before the October election, for Allegheny City. The meeting wes largely attended, there being in all over forty delegates, representing every ward in Allegheny City. J. A. Myler, Esq., was called to the chair, and R. H. Davis appointed Secretary. The Committee unanimously decided to have a grand torchlight procession throughout Allegheny City, on the evening before the State election (October 12th,) of all the Grant and Tanner Clubs of Allegheny City, and as many of the Grant and Tanner Clubs and Republican organizations, also the butchers, draymen, and firemen of Allegheny and Pittsburgh and the surrounding boroughs and townships, as could join in on that evening. General Charles Barnes was chosen Chief Marshal by acclamation, and Capt. H. S. Fleming as Chief of Staff. It was understood that the procession should consist of five divisions, two from Allegheny City, two from Pittsburgh and one from the boroughs and townships South of the river. Committees were appointed to select Division Commanders to designate the route, on invitations, and printing. The Committee then adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening at the same place. The officers of the procession, the divisions and positions to be assigned the different Clubs and the route, will be announced at as early a date as practicable.

It is intended by the Republicans of Allegheny city to make this demonstration the grand one of the campaign, and they are already entering into the preparations for it which cannot but insure success. The fair ladies of our sister city are lending their assistance also, and propose giving a handsome silk flag to that ward or election district which turns out on the evening of the procession the largest number of men in proportion to the Republican vote polled on the day, the presentation to be made at the Rink. All the neighboring clubs and associations will be cordially invited to attend and join in the demonstration. The Allegheny City latch strings will be out. There will be a brilliant display of fire works along the route of the procession, and it is expected that the streets of Allegheny City, so frowningly dark during the evening of the Democratic procession, will be brilliant with the Chinese lanterns, flags and decorations with which her citizens can be so profuse in decorating their houses along the routes of Republican processions.

Arrest of a Thief and Recovery of Stolen Goods.

We stated several weeks since that a large quantity of wearing apparel, consisting of several overcoats, dress coats and pantaloons, and also a goldheaded cane, had been taken from the office of J. A. Emery, No. 68 Fifth avenue. The stolen property jointly belonged to Mr. Emery and his brothers. The attention of the police was directed to the robbery, and officers Messner, Gumbert and Herron designated to work up the case. Suspicion attached to a man named John W. Stevenson, who visited the office occasionally, who always wore pretty fair clothes and was without apparent means of support. A description of the man was given to the officers. A week or ten days since officer Messner's labors were rewarded by the recovery of the gold-headed cane at De Roy's, having been pawned by a man answering to the description given to the officers by Mr. Emery. Three charges of larceny were preferred against Stevenson, but notwithstanding the vigilance of the officers he evaded arrest until yesterday, when he was taken into custody by officers Herron and Gumbert. He is at present in the lock-up and will have a hearing this morning. On examination of his clothing several pawn tickets were found in his possession, and it is supposed that they answer for the stolen property.

More of It.

Frank Moffat, a Philadelphian, was shot and dangerously wounded on Monday morning, by one of the participants in the Democratic procession. It seems that Moffat was riding in one of the cars of the Citizens Passenger Railway, on Penn street, when the procession came along. He cheered for Grant and Colfax, which caused a discussion, when one of those in the ranks fired a revolver, the ball taking effect in his shoulder and inflicting a painful and dangerous wound. He was carried into a house close by where he remained at last accounts in a very critical condition. The party who fired the shot was not arrested, and is, according to all accounts, not known, which seems very singular.

The Mudlarks Still Moving—They Break in and Steal.

Not satisfied with thrusting burning torches into the faces of little children, breaking their torch sticks over the heads of inoffensive old men and women, firing pistols promiscuously into the crowd, wielding the sabre indiscriminately on any and every person in their way, robbing and stealing whenever opportunity presented, while participating in the grand torch-light procession of Monday night, they carry the war into their own stronghold, and on Tuesday morning commence a systematic pillaging and despoiling of the stores of citizens known to them as unfriendly in politics. They smashed the show window of Dr. Jos. Abel's drug store, corner of Fifth avenue and Grant street. Coyle & Bro's. shoe store windows were also smashed and the goods partially ransacked. They then attacked the jewelry establishment formerly kept by Mr. W. Wiley, but now by Messrs. Biggs & Hoyle. They burst open the door, and smashed furniture and goods to the value of $400. A man named Gustave Gravner was struck in the side with a boulder and seriously hurt in connection with the affair, and other parties were more or less injured during the progress of the attack. Information was made before Mayor Blackmore, charging Thomas Grogan, John Murphy, John McCarthy, John Bradford and Bernard Gallagher with riot. Mr. Gravner also made information against Grogan for felonious assault and battery, and Richard Jenkins, also connected with the jewelry store, made another information against Grogan for malicious mischief, in breaking the window and smashing a valuable looking glass. Warrants were issued and Grogan, Bradford and Gallagher were arrested. They will have a hearing this morning.

Bonds—Hymenial.

Our genial friend, Alderman McMasters, was pleasantly engaged on Monday. While seated in his cozy little office he was startled out of an agreeable reverie by a summons which required his immediate presence in the county boarding house, better known as the county jail. In obedience to the mandate he quickly placed himself within its massive portals, when the reason of the sudden call became apparent. Charles Cole, of a coal hue, had met Eliza Hackett, of the same complexion. Meeting, they had loved, loved wisely, and, as the sequel proved, well. Now these twain desired the performance of that peculiar ceremony which of two makes one. The obliging 'Squire, ever ready to accommodate, made haste; in the twinkling of an eye it was done, and Hackett, no longer Hackett, but Cole, was receiving the congratulations of her friends in the private parlor of the courteous Warden Scandrett.

The happy ceremony over, the worthy official, though strongly opposed to the doctrine of "greenbacks for bonds," was nevertheless compelled for once to forego his principles, and in fact the doctrine. By some process of reasoning he brought himself not only up to this point, but retired, feeling that in some cases at least it was the perfection of honesty and justice.

Amusements.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—There was a small attendance at the Opera House last evening, the people being too much engrossed with political affairs to devote due attention to the drama. Mr. Mark Smith, as clever an actor as we have had here for many a day, sustained the character of Sir Anthony Absolute in the standard comedy of the "Rivals" in a manner which fully confirmed the high encomiums he has won elsewhere. The other parts were very well sustained by the company, and altogether the play was put on the stage in a highly creditable manner. This evening "London Assurance will be presented, and we hope to see a much larger audience in attendance.

Unneighborly.

Mrs. Emma Richey and Mrs. Mary Evans are next door neighbors in South Pittsburgh. Mrs. Richey states that Mrs. Evans has been in the habit, for a month past, of emptying the contents of an article of chamber furniture on her front steps. She was only detected in the act on Saturday night, Mrs. Richey having forsaken for the evening her downy couch to keep watch and ward for the hitherto unknown offender. Alderman McMasters issued a warrant for the arrest of Mrs Evans on a charge of malicious mischief. She was apprehended and gave bail for a hearing to-day at 3 P. M.

Sudden Death.

Coroner Clawson yesterday morning held an inquest on the body of an elderly man named Samuel Black, a resident of Rochester, who fell dead at the corner of Fifth avenue and Market street. It appears that the deceased came to the city on business on Monday, and was on his way to the Allegheny depot intending to return on the nine A. M. train, when he fell dead as stated. The body was taken to the residence of his sister, No. 77 Grant street, where the inquest was held, and a verdict of death from apoplexy rendered.

Instructive Amusement.

William Eyler has a wagonmaking establishment corner of Cherry and Virgin alleys. Mr. Eyler states that the brothers Oiler and two other lads, named respectively McVerron and Goggins, amused themselves on Sunday afternoon by demolishing a considerable portion of the establishment. The windows, doors, several wagons, &c., &c., bear marks of the hand of destruction. The two Oilers were arrested and gave bail for a hearing. The other two have not been arrested.

Furor and Appreciation.

The great commotion that has been caused by the extremely low prices at which the finest and most fashionable styles of ladies furs are being sold at the great first class house of William Fleming, No. 139 Wood street, still continues. The people do appreciate real bargains when offered; and they also appreciate fine qualities of goods, and neat and beautiful styles. These are the great and important features that have drawn to this house the trade of all classes of the community. Whilst old fogy houses are grumbling and growling about dull times and customers being scarce, and what few they get unwilling to pay large profits for inferior goods, this great representative Hat, Cap and Ladies' Fur House is constantly thronged with customers, both in the wholesale and retail departments, who fully appreciate the favor of being able to save from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. on their purchases, and at the same time get fresh made, new goods of better material and of newer and more desirable styles than can be had at other houses where they are unwilling to sell unless they can gain big profits on old and inferior goods.

The Marathon Silver Mining Company

Has a special charter from the State of Pennsylvania. By the private prospectus of the Company their working capital is $100,000, of which $50,000 is preferred stock, which entitles the holder to draw interest on its par value at the rate of 12½ per cent. per year. This Company is not allowed to increase its capital, nor have the directors authority to incur any indebtedness beyond one thousand dollars; neither are they allowed to make a mortgage on the property unless by unanimous consent of the Stockholders present at a meeting called for this special purpose. Their property is paid for and they place their stock before the public, having no indebtedness to liquidate. The originators are business men and of experience in mining affairs. It is confidently asserted that no better or safer investment has ever been offered to the public. The property has been tested and found first class, and in a short time it presumed that this company will be enabled to declare large dividends beyond the interest guaranteed on its preferred stock.
